ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS FOR LAWYERS TOPIC OF NEW ABA PUBLICATION

A new publication from the American Bar Association Economics of Law Practice Section outlines a complete accounting system designed especially for the small law firm.

"Simplified Accounting Systems and Concepts for Lawyers" stresses the necessity of a sound accounting system to minimize the business risks involved in operating small firms.

The publication describes the serious problems caused by uncoordinated and nonuniform bookkeeping; explains bookkeeping principles to those with little experience in systemizing financial records; and provides a standard chart of accounts incorporating standard accounting titles and a uniform numbering system.

The 145-page paperbound book includes chapters on Basic Bookkeeping for Lawyers, Cash Disbursements and Payroll, Client Billings and Rebillings, Client Trust Funds, and Profit Planning and Budgeting.

"Simplified Accounting Systems and Concepts for Lawyers" utilizes humorous examples to illustrate basic accounting principles and also contains numerous charts, graphs and illustrations to demystify the accounting process for the inexperienced attorney.

The publication is available from the American Bar Association, Order Billing 511, 1155 East 60th Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60637 at a cost of $34.00 (plus $1.00 handling charge). A $10.00 per copy discount is offered to members of the Economics of Law Practice Section.

GOLFERS HAVE SWINGING TIME

The Young Lawyer's Fourth Annual Golf Tournament was held Saturday, October 16, 1982 at Jacaranda Country Club. There were approximately sixty participants who enjoyed the Tournament and Buffet luncheon afterwards, during which they could watch the video tapes of their "antics" on the course.

The Tournament was handled as a "Best Ball" Tournament. The Committee tried to match four players with different levels of handicaps, so that all of the teams would be falling even. Then the best ball of the foursome would be selected after each hit, and each of the players would get to hit the next ball from that location.

Refreshments were provided along the Courts as Bob McFann's "Sweet Young Assistants" delivered beer and sodas to the hardworking players. Mc-

Fann himself finally got in step by the second hole, after he was able to replace his civilian shoes which he had forgotten to change before he began the Tournament. Everyone had a great time, but unfortunately, rumor has it that someone needs to explain to Romney Rogers the term "Birdie".

The results of the Tournament were as follows:

FIRST PLACE: Barry Mandelkorn, Scott Fuerst, Robert Plafsky, John Shiekman.

SECOND PLACE TIE: Tom Cazzel, Alan Woolf, Michael Richman, Johnny Burris, Steve Lauer, Carey Fischer, Raymond Ray, Timothy P. Beavers.

CLOSEST TO PIN NO. 3: Eric Simon.
