

Captain Tysheika L. Shaw-Williams - Moderator

Captain Tysheika L. Shaw-Williams is a Road Patrol Captain with the Miramar Police Department who specializes in Restorative Justice with a focus on bridging the gap between juveniles and law enforcement.

As a teenager, she made a promise to herself to pursue a career in Law Enforcement in order to improve community relations between citizens and officers. Sergeant Shaw began her career in 2005 as a Victim Advocate, Domestic Violence Practitioner. After receiving a Masters' Degree in Criminology in 2008, she joined the Miramar Police Department where she happily serves today.

In 2018, Sergeant Shaw was transferred to the Criminal Investigations Division Unit where she oversees cases such as sex trafficking, missing persons and child abuse cases. This resulted in her receiving her 2nd Excellence in Policing Service Award. In 2020, Captain Shaw fulfilled her dream of working as an Internal Affairs Investigator where she investigated criminal and misconduct allegations against law enforcement officers for the Office of the Chief. Her current roles include serving as a Public Information Officer, Recruiter and Community Relations Coordinator for the Miramar Police Department.

Sergeant Shaw serves as Executive Chair for South Florida's Justice Project, a restorative justice facilitator with the Urban League of Broward County and a committee member for the Girls Coordinating Council. She is a joyful mother, wife, yogi, traveler and a proud breast cancer survivor who mentors other female chemotherapy patients.

