

Victor Williams

Special Agent Homeland Security Investigations Retired

Special Agent (SA) Victor Williams of the Department of Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Retired (Ret), is a respected figure in Law Enforcement with over 34 years of domestic and international experience. In 1991 SA Williams Ret., joined the U.S. Customs Service, which later became the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Immigrations and Customs Enforcement (ICE). In February 2011, SA Williams Ret., was assigned to the Office of the Special Agent in Charge Miami, FL Human Trafficking Group and in 2012 became the Coordinator for the South Florida Human Trafficking Task Force (SFHTTF) until his retirement in January 1, 2018. SA Williams Ret. has worked many human trafficking (HT) cases with other Federal and State/Local law enforcement agencies with the assistance of non-governmental organizations (NGOs), faithbased organizations and other state/local service.

As an instructor, presenter or class coordinator, SA Williams Ret., has traveled to the International Law Enforcement Academies in Budapest, Hungary and Gaborone, Botswana educating other international law enforcement officers from all over the world on the prevention of HT, protection of victims, prosecution of violators and partnerships with the community. SA Williams Ret. Has presented to the Bahamian, Jamaican and Vietnamese law enforcement communities, and prosecuting attorneys to assist in establish their own HT programs and has also presented to police departments, universities, high schools, and other local organizations.

SA Williams Ret. is the President/Founder of V.B. Williams Consulting, LLC and in June of 2018, SA Williams Ret. join the Atlanta Hawks Basketball Club as a security consultant until June of 2020, when he became the Coordinator of the Georgia Coalition to Combat Human Trafficking, the State's first law enforcement-based HT coalition addressing all forms of HT in the State until August of 2021. In July of 2021, SA Williams Ret. is currently the Vice Chair of the Miami-Dade Human Trafficking Coalition.

SA Williams Ret., is an eight and half year veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard, a native of Norfolk, Virginia and has a bachelor's degree from Barry University in Miami, FL.